FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD, THAT HE GAVE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON, THAT WHOSOEVER BELIEVETH IN HIM SHOULD NOT PERISH, BUT HAVE EVERLASTING LIFE. - JOHN 3:16

Each reading provides us with an example of divine mercy. God's use of Cyrus to deliver the Israelites, even though he was not a believer, shows that every circumstance and any person can demonstrate the scope of God's love. In fact, it is often the situation or the individual that we least expect that has been chosen to manifest God's mercy to us. This same mercy is seen as God brings us to life with Christ even when we were dead in sin.

Mercy means that strict justice is set aside in favour of compassion. Dispossessed people are raised out of defeat and given another chance. Sinners condemned to severe punishment are raised out of despair and offered a reprieve. The whole world is raised up out of darkness when God's own Son is sent into that world as saviour rather than as judge. God's mercy raises us out of loss and hopelessness, out of darkness and sin, so that we might enjoy the blessings of life.

We too have been raised up so that we might live in truth and might become the visible sign of God's mercy in the world. We have been made a new people, free from the restraints of the past. Joined with Christ we become God's handiwork, creations that bear the seal of the great creator. We are the very sacrament of God's mercy. The forgiveness that we have experienced and the new life within us shine forth as witness to the mercy of God.

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR March

Pope Francis invites all the faithful to pray for those who risk their lives for the Gospel, all over the world, so that they "might imbue the Church with their courage and missionary drive, and be open to the grace of martyrdom".

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:	Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her. Be joyful, all who were in mourning; exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast.
FIRST READING:	2 Chronicles 36:14-16, 19-23 The wrath and the mercy of the Lord are revealed in the exile and liberation of his people.
RESPONSE:	Let my tongue be silenced, if I ever forget you!
SECOND READING:	Ephesians 2:4-10 When we were dead through sins, he brought us to life.
ACCLAMATION:	Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ! God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life. Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
GOSPEL:	John 3:14-21 God sent his Son into the world that we might be saved through him.
COMMUNION ANTIPHON:	Jerusalem is built as a city bonded as one together. It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to praise the name of the Lord.

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS:

 Deceased: Please pray for the recently deceased, (Anniversaries of John Gray, Antonia Ripa, Tony Bugeja) as well as Addison Bhinjiani, Chris, John and Maryanne Sultana.

On Holy Thursday, we will set-up our Altar of Repose in the parish hall. May we ask that parishioners lend us potted plants that can be used to decorate the hall by Tuesday, the 26th of March. For more info, please contact Fr. Raining or the parish office. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

DONATIONS PLEASE
The back door into the Church has been damaged and there is a crack in the glass. It is a very specific type of glass and we have had a couple of quotes to have it replaced. The cost is around $4,000- so we are asking for donations to help cover that cost. Any amount that you are able to spare would be greatly appreciated. Please speak to the Parish Office or Father if you want more details. Thank you to those who have already donated.

PROJECT COMPASSION
This year, Project Compassion will help people in the Philippines, Samoa and Malawi. While from three different corners of the world and facing vastly different challenges, these areas are all united by one dream: to create a better world for all future generations. You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes at the back of the Church, at caritas.org.au/project-compassion or by calling 1800 024 413
