Palm (Passion) Sunday Year B

24th March, 2024

I love books, plays, films where we see a number of different characters reacting within a story. When we look at the Passion Narratives, especially Mark's, we miss the point if we focus solely on Jesus' suffering and death. In fact, the Narratives make little of Jesus' physical suffering. More emphasis is placed on how people react to Jesus. This is an especial feature of Mark's account.

His Passion account proper begins with the unnamed woman, lavishly pouring costly ointment over Jesus' head. Somehow, she has recognised what all the other disciples have missed: Jesus is going to his death. She gives a most precious gift in response to his most precious gift. At the end of Mark's account stands the Centurion, also unnamed, who is the ultimate witness to Jesus in the Gospel of Mark. This man of violence, who probably supervised the scourging, the ridicule, as well as the crucifixion proper sees 'the Son of God' in the dishonourable failure and death. These two people stand as models of discipleship: one the faithful follower who risks ridicule to show love to Jesus; the other, a hard person transformed, converted to believer.

In between these two figures of faith, we have all sorts of other characters: scheming self-serving priests, a weak politician, frightened disciples, a cocksure Peter shamed at the crow of a cock. These people are written into the story that we might see ourselves there. We know our weakness and failures of character. As we see ourselves echoed in the Passion Narrative, we can remind ourselves that Jesus loved these, all these, and us, to the end.

REST GENTLY IN THE LOVE OF GOD.

As you rest in God's love, ponder on the difficult and challenging times of your life. Recall the times when you have felt abandoned by God. Remember the pain, confusion and alienation that you felt. Now acknowledge that Jesus has known this type of abandonment. As you sit with Jesus, ask his Spirit to guide your heart and mind into the mystery of God's way of dealing with sin and suffering.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON: Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out: Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy! O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory? He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

FIRST READING: Isaiah 50 : 4-7
I did not cover my face against insult and I know I will not be ashamed.

RESPONSE: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

SECOND READING: Philippians 2 : 6-11
He humbled himself to become like us and God raised him on high.

ACCLAMATION: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death dying on the cross. Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

GOSPEL: Mark 14 : 1 – 15 : 47
The Passion of the Lord
